2020 REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION
PAGE PROGRAM - Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

Q: What are the dates of the 2020 Republican National Convention Page Program?
A: Convention pages must arrive in Charlotte, NC and be present for orientation at 5:00 PM on Saturday, August 22, 2020, and are expected to be on call through the morning of Friday, August 28, 2020.

Q: What do page duties include?
A: Duties will include acting as floor runners, assisting with Caucus Meetings and distributing official convention materials during sessions. There are many activities being planned, and duties will differ each day.

A: Pages must be nominated by at least two RNC Members from their state or territory. Nomination forms should be returned to Jennifer Oringdulph, Intern and Page Program Coordinator, by May 15, 2020. Pages must be 16 to 22 years old, although it is strongly encouraged participants be between 18 and 22 years old. Applicants will need to undergo a security screening.

Q: How many pages can each delegation nominate?
A: Each state, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, American Samoa, Guam, the Northern Marianas Islands, and the U.S. Virgin Islands may each submit two nominations.

Q: What are the costs associated with being a page?
A: Pages are responsible for the cost of their own transportation to and from Charlotte, including airport transfers. Pages are also responsible for meals, other than those provided at COA sponsored events, and other incidental costs.

Q: What are the accommodations for pages?
A: The COA is planning to cover housing costs for the pages. Pages will be housed at a nearby hotel or dorm and will be assigned a roommate. Every effort will be made to honor specific roommate requests.

Q: Can you summarize the program's basic daily activities?
A: There will be a full schedule of activities for pages including community outreach, guest speakers, educational opportunities, and Charlotte specific activities.

Q: When will the chosen pages be announced?
A: The chosen pages will be announced in June.
